Alert: Friday Afternoon Castro Event

This Alert is going only to paid CHN members.

Our prior newsletters have advised you of the demands by the Castro Merchants Association to improve the street conditions in the Castro neighborhood. We are informed that this Friday at 5:00 p.m. at Jane Warner Plaza in the Castro the following individuals will gather to address this matter: Chief Scott, District Attorney Brooke Jenkins, DPH Director Grant Colfax, Supervisor Rafael Mandelman and others. We do not know the format or program for this gathering, such as whether it is merely speeches, a controlled walk-around, opportunity to get community feedback, or something else. Some of us on the CHN Board will attend and, if given the opportunity, will express our frustration and displeasure that more is not being done to improve the situation in our extended neighborhood. We wanted to let you know in case you, too, are interested in showing-up.

As always, thank you for supporting CHN.
